WATERLOO TOWNSHIP, JACKSON COUNTY

CHRISTMAS TREE DECORATING CONTEST

Contest will be open to individuals, organizations, families or businesses

Official Rules:

1. Have Fun!
2. Decorating should start on December 1st, at 10am and must be completed by Friday, December 2, 5pm.
3. You may use artificial or live trees, no taller than 7 ft.
Trees must be able to stand freely and securely.
All decorations must be securely attached.
4. No open flames will be allowed. The area may be visited by mice and squirrels, but will be out of the weather.
5. You must provide your own secured or attended voting box.
6. Contestants should be willing to have their photograph taken and published.
7. All trees must be decorated by the individual (s), or organization (s) named on the entry form. You may not hire a professional decorator to do so for you. Please be sure to list all members of your group who helped decorate your Christmas Tree.
8. Come prepared with items needed to decorate such as scissors, floral wire, wire cutters, step stool, surge protector, extension cord, etc.
9. Entry form is due by November 26, 2016
10. Your tree must be removed by December 5th at 4pm.

The winning tree will be determined by largest amount donated by Christmas on the Farm visitors on December 3-4. A vote for your tree is counted by the number of dollars donated into your voting box. $1.00 equals one vote.

The 1st place winner will receive all the dollars collected from their voting box, plus a gift certificate from WAHS for $25 to use in the Museum Gift Shop.

2nd and 3rd place. The money from the other boxes will be collected and half will be divided between 2nd and 3rd place winners. The other half will go to WAHS for the maintenance and upkeep of the museum.

Please remove trees by 4pm on December 5th.
