The Cow in Apple Time by Robert Frost

Something inspires the only cow of late
 To make no more of a wall than an open gate,
 And think no more of wall-builders than fools.
 Her face is flecked with pomace and she drools
 A cider syrup. Having tasted fruit,
 She scorns a pasture withering to the root.
 She runs from tree to tree where lie and sweeten.
 The windfalls spiked with stubble and worm-eaten.
 She leaves them bitten when she has to fly.
 She bellows on a knoll against the sky.
 Her udder shrivels and the milk goes dry.

Hoping her sweetheart would stay;
But along came her mother,
Her father and brother,
And frightened her suitor away.*
