

The Gift Shop is up and running for the new season. The shelves were empty after Christmas on the Farm which is a great thing. Linda Collins and I spent two full days, cleaning, doing inventory on new merchandise and decorating the shop. Only sale items are purchased and we attempt to profit by 2 or 3 times the original price. We hope the Board approves of our efforts. We will make up Bean Soup once again in the fall.